DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1906.

THE PRACTICAL POET.

They may sing about the pumpkin and the fodder
In the shock,
But in fodder or in pumpkin I take mighty little stock.
Not the autumn, but the springtime is the season
I would hail,
When it's time to pluck the radish and the onion
is on sale.
We have passed a tedious winter, and we're tired
of pork and beef,
So the coming of the springtime brings a welcome, glad relief.
Oh, there's naught to touch the season—if you'll listen to my tale—
When it's time to pluck the radish and the onion
is on sale.

One of the creditable attractions at the late Street Fair was "Sparkie," a dog of high education. He is the property of Mr. Will H. Mead, his trainer. This animal possesses keen intelligence, answering by barks any sum in addition or subtraction that may be given him by any auditor, and making change with money that is certainly wonderful. In the language of a bystander, "That dog has more sense than half the white people."

Deceased Member

The Maysville Bar met in the Council Chamsuitable action on the death of their late associate, Judge L. W. Robertson.

L. Whitaker, A. D. Cole and E. L. Worthington.

Several of the Attorneys spoke briefly in the highest praise of Judge Robertson as a citizen and as a lawyer.

It may be said of him without disparagement to other members of the Bar that he was one of the ablest lawyers that ever practiced at this Bar, so renowned for its long list of fine lawyers.

SOME TALK!

Did you ever notice when reading the paper---Maysville, Cincinnati, New York, Philadelphia or any other newspaper---you will find most every store advertising their goods will claim that their department is the largest, therefore the best? Why, you can see stores making claims to the largest sales in their respective towns when if it came to a "show-down" they probably wouldn't sell in a year what any one of a dozen others sell in a week. When we make a statement IT'S TRUE, and we challenge contradiction to a single item we ever advertised that is not exactly as stated.

SOME FACTS.

We do the largest Carpet business in this section of Kentucky, and there is not a man, woman or child with at least ONE EYE and a fair amount of brains that don't know it, and yet other stores lay claim to it.

IF FACTS ARE NOT STATED CORRECTLY AT THE START, WHAT MAY YOU EXPECT AT THE TIME OF SALE?

THE LEDGER is averse to personal controversy; but when attacked by a public official in his official capacity in a public body, it reserves the right to talk back. At Monday night's session of the City Council, member Donson practically charged THE LEDGER and its contemporary, The Evening Bulletin, with "grafting," in that they charged an excessive sum for printing the street paving ordinance. The fact is, each paper charged just one-half the statutory rate for publications in weekly newspapers, and just one-fourth the statutory rate for publications in daily newspapers. Now, THE LEDGER does not question the right of Councilmanic Committees to junket around the country at an expense of several hundred dollars to taxpayers; but it would like to know by what right two members of the Board of Council,—Mr. Donson being one of them,—and two other city officials, father an amusement enterprise for their own personal financial benefit, and then ask the city to donate to them $192 worth of licenses? Heretofore, and properly, I think, the Council has generously donated the licenses where these enterprises have been under direction of Benevolent Orders—where the profits went into a general fund for the relief of the sick or needy;—but when four individuals undertake the job, even under such an alluring title as the "Greater Maysville Club," it becomes, to my mind, a green bay horse of another color.

In passing upon the case of a Union miner who had been arraigned for threatening a non-Union workman, Judge KENNEDY of Pittsburgh put it this way—

"No man has the right to prevent another man from working."

YESTERDAY eight able-bodied colored citizens were seated in a row on the sills of the Market street front of M. C. Russell Co., and the sidewalks opposite looked like a miniature Venice. How much better than having these indolent gentlemen comfortably and shadily seated in the settees on the Esplanade—out of the way of business and lady passers-by?

Those in favor of destroying Maysville's only public park—the Market Street Esplanade—say that it is merely a resort for loafers. Well, better that the loafers loaf there than on the street corners and in the doorsteps of private houses. By the way, I never did see many of the society people of Walnut Hills and Clifton occupying the settees on Fountain Square in Cincinnati.

ONE TOUCH OF NATURE.

Down the street came a wagon loaded with meat and drawn by a well-rounded, well-fed little mare. Her steps became slower and slower, and finally, in the middle of the car tracks, she stopped.

"Git up," said the driver; "git up, Jenny!"

But Jenny only turned appealing eyes toward the man on the seat.

Behind him came the shouts and oaths of other drivers.

"Poor Jenny, poor little horse!" said the big, dirty man. "Is she all tired out?"

At the sound of his voice the little horse sighed a sigh of tired appreciation.

"Never mind," he went on soothingly, as he scrambled down off the seat and took her by the bridle. "We'll go right out to the side here and rest a bit," and he led her away from the crowd and stood patting her well-carried sides, while she rubbed her nose against his face.

The other drivers moved on, then turned and looked. Some of them smiled; others replaced their whips which had been taken from their sockets to hurry their own horses after the delay.

Miss Belle McTye of Chesterfield, Va., recently killed a large eagle which had been feasting for some time on her chickens. The eagle measured 5 feet 6 1/2 inches from wing to wing.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all this this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity."

SOCIAL EVENTS

A jolly little crowd, friends of Thad Campbell, gathered on the banks of the river yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to witness the launching and christening of Thad's bright and beautiful new canoe "Shirley." At the appointed hour the justly proud owner of this attractive bark splashed the waters of the Ohio with his shining skipper, having with him in the canoe Miss Sallie Hall and also Miss Elizabeth Barbour, who, gracefully bending forward, smote the brow with the bottle, giving the new name amid the cheers of the spectators and smile of Thad, who seemed as skillful in handling as he showed genius in building the bright pleasure giver. The little company of boys and girls then, with loaded baskets, got in some skiffs and accompanied the "Shirley" in her maiden trip up the river about two miles, chaperoned by Miss Emma Campbell, Mrs. Kemper, Prof. Clinger and Rev. Mr. Akers, having also with them Mr. and Mrs. Ben Poyntz, with their launch, where a landing was made and the happy crowd helped themselves bountifully to dainty refreshments so thoughtfully provided, and spent an hour in a jolly good time. They then returned to the city full of congratulations to Thad for his success, and hope that his genius may be the occasion of another as good a time.

MARRIAGES

BLACKBURN—POLLOCK.
Mr. J. H. Blackburn, Cashier of the Germantown Bank, and Miss Gertrude Pollock, one of Mason county's most accomplished and beautiful daughters, were married at high noon yesterday in the parlors of the Palace Hotel, Cincinnati, the Rev. Fuller officiating.

The bridal party was accompanied by Mrs. Nugent, sister of the bride, and Mr. Wood Wallingford.

"SEEN A LIGHT?"

And Wants To Punish Two Poor Little Penny Newspapers

COL. ALTMAYER'S SAY.

The Chairman of the Street Paving Committee and his fellows have seen a Great Light emanating from the intersection of Market and Second streets, through whose powerful and searching rays it has suddenly been discovered that the local papers have charged the city an "exorbitant" price for publishing the voluminous ordinance which occupied so much space in the little sheets for two weeks. So much for expert opinion. THE LEDGER and Bulletin will now pay for their indiscretion(?) by seeing all the city printing go to the "Bull o' the Woods" job office and the advertising to the "Mountain Howitzer."

COMING HOME

Promise That Maysville Will Have a Banner Crowd of Visitors

The "Home-Coming" preparation is going bravely on under the direction of the General Executive Committee composed of C. L. Sallee, Chairman, John Duley, John J. Altmeyer, Millard Merz and R. A. Cochran, and the gentlemen composing the Committees on Invitations and Publicity are urged to meet with this Executive Committee at the law office of Sallee & Slattery at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

A gentleman whose judgment is entitled to much consideration predicts that "Home-Coming Week" in Maysville will bring more people here than were ever before in the city on any other occasion. He thinks the Bryan Day will be distanced in point of attendance. This means a hummer, so let us get good and ready for this mammoth event.

HON. F. BAKER TRUSSELL.

Hon. F. B. Trussell died last night at 8 o'clock at his home in Tollesboro, aged about 78 years. He had been a patient and uncomplaining sufferer for several years, and when the final summons came he was prepared to go.

Mr. Trussell was twice married, his first wife being Miss Ellen, sister of Colonel E. A. Robinson of this city, and his second, who with one daughter survives, was a Miss Rhodes of this county.

Mr. Trussell was a lifelong and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church and was noted for his piety and uprightness of character. During the Civil War he was Mayor of this city, and at the expiration of his term of office was appointed Provost Marshal, serving with ability and faithfulness in each.

The funeral will occur tomorrow at 9:30 o'clock at Tollesboro, with services by the Rev. Dr. Maurice Waller.

Interment in the Robinson lot in the Maysville Cemetery.

Our Colored Citizens.

St. Clair R. Stuart died at the home of Della Carlyle yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, aged one year and nine months.

Funeral from Scott Chapel at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with services by the Rev. O. A. Nelson.

Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

MISS ANNIE POAGE

Kentucky Lady Holding Responsible Position in Pittsburgh

Miss Annie Poage of Ashland, who perhaps is one of the ablest newspaper women in the state, has accepted a position as Ad. Writer with Forges & Buhl, one of the oldest and largest Department Stores of Greater Pittsburgh.

Miss Poage has often visited in this county, her relatives here being among our wealthiest and most prominent people.

She has had newspaper work in all its phases; was Society Editor on the Ashland papers for a number of years, and her descriptive powers are wonderful. It is said she can almost give a detailed account of a swell function, or give almost a sermon after having heard it, without taking a note.

She has done much political writing with the various papers with which she has been connected, and has written for them during the most heated campaigns, and in the face of this she is opposed to women voting—says she has all the rights she wants in free America.

She belongs to a family of unusual intelligence, her brother, the late Judge William Poage, was counted one of the shrewdest politicians in the country, and she has a brother who is a prominent lawyer in Chicago.

Miss Poage belongs to the best Literary Clubs of her city, and takes time for social life, and in social qualities she is unequalled.

For the past few years she has done exclusive ad. work, but no doubt, like all newspaper people, she will some time return to the old love, and we will not be surprised any time to hear of her being on some of Greater Pittsburgh's big dailies.

River News

The gage marks 11.6 and falling.

The Keystone State will be down this evening from Pittsburgh.

Iron-ton Elks are to give an excursion on the steamer Princess tomorrow evening.

The steamer Thealka, on her way from Paintsville to Catlettsburg, struck a rock in the Big Sandy at Red House Sunday and sank.

The Thealka was owned by the Paintsville and Catlettsburg Packet Company.

Gasoline boats are coming more and more in favor each year and a number of people along the river are purchasing them. The boats are, in fact, becoming more popular than automobiles, as they are less expensive to build and operate.

The steamer Riddick, popularly termed the "boozie boat," as a result of the general impression that she was put into service to evade the lid order and quench the thirst of a paraded populace at Portsmouth, Greenup and way points on Sunday, came to grief Sunday, the authorities of Greenup county arresting the proprietors and tying the boat up.

Japan's mortuary list in the late war numbers

80,738, made up of 47,152 killed in action, 11,424 died from wounds and 21,802 from sickness. The total included 213 officers, 76,908 non-commissioned officers and men, and 1,357 non-combatants.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

FUNDS FOR "HOME-COMING"

Finance Committee Asks Contributions For Entertainment of the Visitors

MAYSVILLE, Ky., May 9th, 1906.
To Mason County People: As Chairman of the Finance Committee, I take this means to ask every family to render what financial assistance it can, in order that the Committee on "Home-Coming" can make the home-coming a grand success.

Possibly 75% of every family in Mason county will have relatives or dear friends coming here for this event, and it is a question now of money—how well we will be able to entertain them.

The Entertaining Committee is now waiting on our Committee to see how much money will be at their command.

Kindly send me what you can. It matters not how little, for every contribution will be highly appreciated.

MILLARD MERZ,
Chairman Finance Committee.

THE PATIENCE OF JOB

Could Hardly Endure the Torment of Itching Piles.

Itching piles is constant torment—so is eczema.

No comfort all day, no rest at night.

Can't keep your mind on work.

No use to go to bed.

Suffer no longer; use Doan's Ointment. It gives relief in five or ten minutes. It cures in a short time—cures you to stay cured.

Maysville people endorse it.

Mrs. S. F. Tolle, of 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Before I used Doan's Ointment, in March, 1900, I had suffered for a long while with itching hemorrhoids. I had tried persistently to rid myself of the trouble but without success, and anybody who has known the tortures of this complaint will understand what I suffered. Doan's Ointment, procured at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, cured me, as stated in a testimonial given at that time, and during the five years past I have had no return of the trouble. It required only one box to bring this gratifying result. I have used Doan's Ointment for other purposes, and find that it is a specific for skin troubles and all itching diseases."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
